There was an old woman who lived in the wood,

G7 / / C
Down by the river Sallia.

She had a baby six months old,
Weela weela wallia;
She had a baby six months old,
Down by the river Sallia.

She had a big knife three foot long,
Weela weela wallia;
She had a bigknife three foot long,
Down by the river Sallia.

She stuck the knife in the baby's head,
Weela weela wallia;
The more she stabbed it the more it bled.
Down by the river Sallia.

Three big knocks come a knockin' at the door,
Weela weela wallia;
Two policemen and a man.
Down by the river Sallia.

'Are you the woman what killed the child?'
Weela weela wallia;
'Are you the woman what killed the child
Down by the river Sallia?'

'I am the woman what killed the child.'
Weela weela wallia;
'I am the woman what killed the child.
Down by the river Sallia.'

The rope got chucked and she got hung,
Weela weela wallia;
The rope got chucked and she got hung,
Down by the river Sallia.

The moral of this story is,
Weela weela wallia;
Don't stick knives in babies' heads,
Down by the river Sallia.
